

INFERIOR

That's a bit excessive,
don't you think?
Excessive and greedy –
you don't need three hearts,
eight legs and a bunch of brains.
There are amputees without legs
and you're hogging them.
There are people out there
with heart failure,
you know that?
You could donate one,
but you don't.

I can't talk about it.
I've said all I need to.

You can even open a pickle jar –
how come you can.
And I can't?

F you
